Numb. 1970

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 15. to Monday May 19. 1684.

Genoua, May 9.

THE third Instant arrived here the Tyger Frigat from Marseilles, she and the Bonadventure will sail in a day or two for Leghorn. They are fitting out here 25 Brigantins each to carry 80 men, and 10 Gallies, the first are to be commanded by Signior Filippo Stagino, and the latter by Signior Gio: Maria Doria. Savona is very well fortified, and there are in it 5000 men.

Stockholm, April 26. The Sieur Van Haren, Ambassador Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, arrived here on Sunday last, having met with very bad travelling, and been above nine weeks on his way; and yesterday he had a long Conference with Count Oxenstierne, Chancelor of this Kingdom. All Officers that have employments in Pomeren, are commanded to repair thither immediately: Colonel Mackleet, Governor of Stralsund, and several other Officers, parted from hence yesterday; and Count Coningsmarke, Governor of that Province, is preparing for his departure. An Officer is come hither to raise a Regiment for the Emperor's Service; but hitherto has made no great progress therein. Admiral Sioblad is gone to Carelscroon to hasten the fitting out of the Men of War that it is thought necessary to have at Sea this Summer.

Dantzicke, May 6. They write from Cracow that the Polish Court continued at Pawarow; That Count Wallastein, the Emperor's Ambassador, was expected there in few days. That the King had appointed the Rendezvous of his Army to be the 20th of this Month on the Frontiers of Podolia: and that in the mean time Caminiec was very closely blocked up. That the report that had been spread that a great Body of Turks and Tartars were marching to relieve the place, which it's said begins to be in want of Provisions, appeared to be without ground: And that the Cossacks that are Subject to the Czars of Moscovy, and live on the other side of the Nieper, have sent 15 Deputies to the Castellan Lubazewski, to offer the King of Poland their service, upon condition they may continue to enjoy their Liberties and Religion; which the said Castellan hath not only in the King's name granted them, but hath sent them Moneys and Cloaths.

Vienna, May 11. The Gallies and other small Vessels that are to be employed this Campagne on the Danube under the command of Count Vecchi, are fitting out with great diligence, and will be ready in 8 or 10 days: A Bridge of Boats is laid here over the Danube, for the conveniency of the Imperial Troops that must pass that River. From Hungary they write, that the Turkish Troops do draw together near Agria and Buda, in order to attempt the Relief of Newheusel: That the Imperial Regiments are on their march to oppose them; and that in the mean time the Baron de Mercy has secured all the passages about Newheusel: These Letters add that the Imperialists have quitted Zetschin, and have burnt as well the Town as the Castle, the Inhabitants as well as Soldiers to the number of 6000 Souls retiring to Karpen and Schemnitz. All things are preparing for the Rendezvous of the Imperial Army, which will consist of 50000 men, besides 10000 Hungarians which the Palatine of Hungary has undertaken to bring into the Field; and the Troops of the Prince de Lubomirski which are 6 or 7000 men; And those commanded by General Leslie on the side of Croatia. Our Letters from Poland tell us, that that King will have an Army of 60000 men of his own Troops, besides the Cossacks who are said to be 40000 strong.

Lintz, May 13. The Emperor went from hence on Wednesday last, to the Cloyster of Lamback, where his Imperial Majesty intends to pass the Whitsun-Holy-days. The same day the Duke of Lorrain arrived there from Insprucke, and had a long conference with his Imperial Majesty, and yesterday his Highness returned hither: He will not stay many days here, but will hasten for Hungary, where the Rendezvous of the Imperial Army is appointed some days sooner than was at first resolved; It will be held the 20th of this Month near Raab, to preserve the Forage about Gran, for that the Army may have use of it, if they march towards Buda; as it is said they will. The 11th Instant arrived here an Express from Hungary, being sent by General Caprara to give the Emperor an account, That 4000 Turks who were sent under the command of a Bassa to relieve Newheusel, had made an attempt to force a passage which was guarded by the Imperialists, but were repulsed with the loss of 200 of their men killed upon the place, which so discouraged them that they turned back again in great haste and disorder. On Monday last arrived here an Express with Letters from the Marquis de Grana, Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, wherein he gives the Emperor an account, that the French have besieged the City of Luxemburg, having set down before the place the 28th of the last Month; Upon which it's said his Imperial Majesty hath written to the Elector of Bavaria and to Prince Waldecke to hasten their march.

Ratisbonne, May 15. Count Frobenius de Furstemberg is gone to Municke to Confer with the Elector of Bavaria, before he goes to the Assembly of the Princes and States of Suabia, to whom he is sent by the Emperor, to press them to joyn their Troops with those of Bavaria and Franconia. The Elector of Bavaria has appointed the general Rendezvous of his Forces to be held the 25th of this Month near Municke, where Prince Waldecke (who hath sent Deputies to the States of Franconia, and of Suabia) is expected to Confer with his Electoral Highness. The Baron Del Val, Envoy from the Marquis de Grana, is gone for Municke, and from thence will, it's said, pass to the Emperor's Court.

Hamburgh, May 19. The Lunenburg Troops are marching to their Rendezvous, which is appointed to be held within two miles of Harburg; And we are told that 6000 men of Hesse Cassel have joyned with the Troops of the Duke of Hanover: The Danish